

ENGLISH

Bachelors of Arts

Are you interested in analyzing literature and language? By pursuing English, you will also explore diverse perspectives and cultural contexts, and learn to express ideas creatively, clearly, and effectively in both professional and personal settings.

	FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR	FOURTH YEAR
Academics	Meet with an ENL Major Advisor to create an Academic Plan and seek advising for your major requirements. Meet with College Of Letters and Science Advising to plan College requirements including GE's. Take some lower division ENL courses .	Continue meeting with College of L&S's Dean's Advising to help you pick your GE and College requirements. Meet with Peer and/or Staff Major Advisor to update Degree Worksheet and Academic Plan. Attend faculty office hours. Consider adding an additional major or minor.	Continue meeting with L&S Advising and your Major Advising to ensure you're on track to meet requirements. Plan which ENL emphasis you will follow. Apply for the Creative Writing or Critical Honors Program , if eligible. Take upper-division coursework.	Meet with a Major Advisor to review your major progress. Apply for either of the Honor's Programs . Meet with College of Letters and Science Advisors to get a degree check on your university and College requirements. Apply for Graduation and register for Commencement .
The Aggie Experience	Attend the Involvement Fair to see a showcase of student organizations and clubs. Explore clubs and communities online. Attend First-Year Aggie Connections and any mixers to build community. Attend a football game!	Continue exploring clubs and organizations on campus to find your community. Check out the Center for Student Involvement . Attend departmental hosted events like Max Out Your Major . Explore volunteer opportunities on and off-campus.	Attend the quarterly Max Out Your Major program to tailor your upper-division coursework to your specific academic goals. Participate in activities such as Model UN, stand up comedy, film-making, theater , plays , and formula racing.	Celebrate current academic achievements by attending the department's End of Year Awards Ceremony , where students will showcase their best academic and creative work for a chance for prizes. Continue seeking leadership roles and clubs.
Career & Self Development	Attend the Fall Open House to learn more about Career Center Services. Meet with a Career Center Advisor to begin the process of career exploration. Create a Handshake account to see career events. Create a LinkedIn profile and begin networking with peers.	Attend the plentiful Career Center workshops to learn about building your resume, networking, gaining transferable skills, interview basics, and more. Check out the Undergraduate Research Center to explore your interests and get involved in research opportunities.	If you have a job, look into applying it toward ENL/UWP 192 (internship) credit. Apply for summer internships with support from the Career Center. Meet with a Pre-Grad/Pre-Law Advising to learn about graduate school and how to find a program that fits your interests.	Visit Pre-Graduate & Pre-Law Advising for support with exploring, preparing for, and applying to graduate, professional, and credential programs. Secure an on-campus or off-campus internship. Connect with faculty for letters of recommendation.
Intercultural & Global Engagement	Explore the programs at the Global Learning Hub , especially their First-Year Opportunities and study abroad programs for English majors . Meet with a Global Learning Advisor to get support exploring, applying to programs, or researching funding.	Attend the Global Learning Fair . Consider applying to study abroad programs (Global Learning Hub or UCEAP). Discuss how study abroad programs could count towards major requirements abroad with your Major Advisor.	Pursue study abroad program! Attend an annual event hosted by the Cross Cultural Center , such as the Powwow and La Gran Tardeada. Refine your Global Skills and Leadership with programs such as Global Impact Fellows .	Attend the Global Learning Conference to learn how to articulate your global skills into transferable skills and career competence. Explore the Global Grad & Postdoc Career Skills Series and Certificate .

TRANSFERABLE SKILLS

- Critical Thinking
- Communication
- Public Speaking
- Problem-Solving
- Project Management
- Information Literacy
- Creative Writing
- Editorial Review
- Interpersonal
- Attention to Detail
- Adaptability
- Research
- AI Literacy

WHAT'S NEXT

CAREERS

- Technical Writer
- Marketing Specialist
- Editor
- Public Relations Specialist
- Copywriter
- Lawyer
- Grant Writer
- Project Manager
- Human Resources

GRADUATE STUDIES

English, Education
Comparative Literature,
Creative Writing,
Communication,
Journalism, Publishing,
Library & Information
Science, Law,
Business,
Museum Studies,
Professional Writing